

Six Keys to PMO Success

Considering starting a Program or Project Management Office (PMO)? Wondering how to get started? Do you have an existing PMO that is struggling? Need to sell the value proposition of your PMO?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, this short seminar will be of interest. It will provide insight into the challenges of implementing a PMO. We’ll discuss the many “flavors” of PMOs and get started on defining your PMO using individual and group exercises. And, finally, reveal the six keys to a successful implementation. Following this seminar you’ll be armed with the knowledge to define, implement and measure the success of a Program/Project Management Office. Isn’t that worth a few hours of your time?
