

Managing Change Successfully!

This one-day course is designed to provide a clear understanding of the causes of change, how to effectively and efficiently deal with change in an organization, on a project or in everyday life. Attendees will be prepared to become successful Change Agents – a skill that more and more employers seek!

Topic Outline

- Justifications for change in the Corporate Environment
- Change triggers
- What changes?
- Components of change
- Types of change
- Overcoming resistance to change
- Being a Change Agent
- Understanding reactions to change
- Assessing the impact of change
- Planning for change
- Leading change
- Institutionalizing change
- Simple Tips for handling change